Traveling with MSO

Spring Break Travel Planning Tips

- Book Early – The early bird gets the worm (and by worm, we mean trip)! Popular destinations book up early, so it's never too soon to start mapping out your spring break plans.
- Think Outside the Beach – While soaking up a little sun usually comes to mind when you hear “spring break”, don't rule out the less tropical locales. You could learn about US history, explore the National Parks, or go camping! Consider other destinations that may be a good (or better) fit for your family.
- Purchase Travel Insurance – Protect yourself and your spring break fund from trip disruptions, weather delays, or in the event you have to cancel.
- Be Schedule Savvy – It's no surprise that spring break is a peak travel season. Think about booking tours and activities during less crowded times and avoid spending half of your trip waiting in line.
- Be Flexible – Keep calm and be flexible. You never know what's around the corner, so keep a less rigid itinerary to allow for anything unexpected.
- Fly MSO! – MSO's convenient nonstop flights and connecting options can get you where you want to go!
